Polk Forsyth Dies Suddenly.

The announcement upon our streets
Friday morning that Alexander T.
Forsyth was dead was a shock to the whole community, expressions of sorrow being manifested on every hand.
"Polk" as he was familiarly called,
had been complaining for several days
having been officiating as auctioneer
at more than thirty public sales since January first, being exposed many of these days to the most inclement weather, telling a friend Wednesday morning that he was "about played out."

On Thursday morning he arose and insisted on going to conduct a sale of some real estate near the city under the protest of his devoted wife. Only a short distance from his home, however, he was taken ill and helped into the home of a neighbor, Dr. Wm. Kenney, and was compelled to remain there for several hours before he could be removed to his own home. He recuperated in the afternoon and was quite jovial with friends that called late Thursday afternoon to tell him of the sale.

His heavy breathing later in the night
attracted the attention of his wife, who was at his side, and Dr. Wm. Kenney, who was in the adjoining room.
Everything was done known to medical science to relieve him, but he quietly passed into eternal rest at 2:15 o'clock
Friday morning.

He was one of the best known and most highly esteemed citizens of Bourbon county. He was a native of this county, where he had lived all of his life with the exception of the four years he spent in the Civil War. He was a noted auctioneer to which business he had devoted thirty years of his life, and had sold more real estate and bank stock at public sale than any other auctioneer in Kentucky.

"Polk" was generous to a fault and ever ready to assist one in need, his heart was as tender as a child's; he loved children and children loved him,
and was known to all of them as
"Uncle Polk." He was well informed on all important questions and fearless
in giving his opinion, but at all times respected the opinion of those who differed with him. He was a gallant Confederate soldier, a member of Company C., Ninth Kentucky Cavalry, commanded by the late Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge.

Many years ago the deceased united with the Christian church. He was a man of high ideals of life. He will be missed in this community where he has so long lived. A fond and devoted husband, a kind neighbor, a true friend and a good man, has passed from Among us—"Peace to his ashes."

He is survived by his wife Mrs. Helen Myers Forsyth; two brothers, Robert Forsyth, of Louisville; Joseph Forsyth, of Washington, D. C.; one half-brother, Mason Forsyth, of Bourbon,
and one step-son, Dr. Julius Purnell.

The funeral services were held at the residence on Mt. Airy Avenue, Sunday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock, conducted by Elder Carey E. Morgan, of the Christian church, assisted by Rev. M.
T. Chandler, of the Methodist church.
The interment took place in the Mil-lersons cemetery, the services at the grave being conducted by the Confederate Veterans and Bourbon Lodge of Odd Fellows.

The pall-bearers were: W. T.
Brooks, Wm. Myall, Bishop Hibler, E.
B. January, Jas. McClure, Henry A.
Power, Clifton Arnsperger and Wm.
H. Mappin.

One of the noticeable things at the funeral of Col. Forsyth was the large number of men present, it being remarked by many that it was the largest crowd of men ever seen at a funeral in this county. The special train of three coaches that left Paris for Mil-lersons, immediately after the services
at the residence was crowded, and arrived at Millersburg about forty-five minutes before the long procession that drove through. It was said to have been the largest crowd ever seen in the Millersburg cemetery on a similar occasion.

The Nerve of a Nation.

The Sixtieth Congress, in bad humor, is nearing its end. Honorable members of both houses lose their patience easily. Irrate Senators and excitable Representatives gird at each other, at their officers, at the President—even at foreign nations. Gavel is smashed to splinters, the solemn ceremony of "taking down a speaker's words" is proposed and the awful discipline of the "mace" is invoked. A committee is at work much of the time expunging unpleasant passages from the record.

Some such conditions obtain elsewhere. The most notable performance at a recent meeting of the Peace Society of New York was the hearty cheering with which every allusion to a great and growing navy was received. There is a suggestion of violence and vituperation in the utterances of many of the women who are demanding the suffrage. The peace cruise of the battleship fleet was ended with considerable list-shaking at the nations of the world which were so recently generous hosts. In private as in public life there is much acerbity. Too many people are "on edge."

Perhaps all these things are nothing more than the results of a bad example. For some years past we have had almost daily exhibitions of bad manners in high place. It is doubtful if any good cause can be permanently advanced by offensive characterization of its opponents. Men are not convinced by calling them liars, criminals, fakirs and weaklings. It is only within recent years that a difference of opinion has been an "infamy."

Possibly the long strain occasioned by this era of harsh words—from any other source they would have been fighting words—has shattered the nerves of the nation and brought the gentle as well as the vulgar and brutal to the verge of irresponsibility. In most places there is need of self-restraint, a return to the canons of good-breeding and the application of a reasonable check upon that unruly member the tongue.

Of the many important duties assumed by President William H. Taft, Thursday none will make more unerringly for the dignity, the prosperity and the peace of the Republic than that which shall admonish him to substitute moderation and civility for the rancor which he will find on every hand.

The Chew-Chew Gospel.

New things in every line are coming to the front every day, the latest is the Chew-Chew Gospel started in the East by a New York millionaire.

According to Horace Fletcher, the difference between semi-starvation and comfortable living for thousands of New York's lowly people lies in a few motions of chewing. He has now gone into humble lodgings to spread his gospel of dieties. It is his chosen mission to prove how one small mouthful of food may serve where several have been the rule before.

Mr. Fletcher was driven to his belief and practice not for economy but for his health. He is a millionaire, yet richer in his dietary discovery, as he conceives the matter than in his dollars. His joy of life is that endless chew. Experimenting once with a young garden onion, Mr. Fletcher found that 722 grindings produced involuntary swallowing and disposed also of the odor. Attention to this rule, not alone among the poor, would contribute often toward a more fragrant day. Further evidence that the chewing gospel may be for palace as well as tenement lies in its originator's claim that it will prevent appendicitis and in a disciple's testimony that by it he cured inherited gout. It is to be a blessed day for all but the doctors in ordinary when the world shall know and sing that—

Man wants but little here below,
But chews that little long.

As with the food so with the drinking Fletcherism, only the sip takes the place of the chew. Every liquor that has taste should be sipped. Intoxicants taken this way, we are told do not intoxicate. We may therefore, if we are wise to the word, dispose at a sip of the treacherous though joyful jag, the local option law and the prohibitionists. While Mr. Fletcher hies him to a tenement that he may preach to the humble, let no other be too proud to listen.

Signs of the Times.

The "advance agent of prosperity" is in the White House, or perhaps we should say, the executive mansion; says the Louisville Times. Much has been promised by his sponsors or his behalf, one of them—the president of the New York Central, no less—having gone the length to limit him by date. The good times are coming within six months—a sensitive ear can apprehend them, says this authority—was the wage-cutting Lackawanna one of them? The Journal of Commerce reports that February's sales of pig iron were scarcely 20 per cent. of January's—is that another?

It would be ungracious to push a good man too far; he is given to us, whether we like him or no, at a critical time, and we do implicitly believe that his influence will be clarifying, and not, as was his predecessor's, sacrificing. He is to be a conservator, not a destroyer, a healer of wounds and a builder up of wasted tissues. Some one remarks that nothing is cheap if it's going lower and nothing is dear if it cannot be had for less, and we look at the wheat market and wonder which aphorism best fits. Things are in a bad way, but if they really are at the worst, if commercially speaking the country is "flat of its back," let it but look up, it cannot look down, and it will see the blue sky overhead. For the present, if it cannot console itself with signs of the times, it may, prophetically, take comfort from signs of the zodiac.

The Story of a Medicine.

Its name—"Golden Medical Discovery"—was suggested by one of its most important and valuable ingredients—Golden Seal root.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that he could, by the use of pure, triple-refined glycerine, aided by a certain degree of constantly maintained heat and with the aid of apparatus and appliances designed for that purpose, extract from our most valuable native medicinal roots their curative properties much better than by the use of alcohol, so generally employed. So the now world-famed "Golden Medical Discovery," for the cure of weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness and kindred derangements was first made, as it ever since has been, without a particle of alcohol in its make-up.

A glance at the full list of its ingredients, printed on every bottle-wrapper, will show that it is made from the most valuable medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. All these ingredients have received the strongest endorsement from the leading medical experts, chemists and writers on Hygiene.

Persons who recommend them as the very best remedies for the diseases for which "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised. A little book of these endorsements has been compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and will be mailed free to any one asking same by postal card, or letter addressed to the Doctor as above. From these endorsements, copied from standard medical books of all the different schools of practice, it will be found that the ingredients composing the "Golden Medical Discovery" are advised not only for the cure of the above mentioned diseases, but also for the cure of all catarrhal, bronchial and throat affections accompanied with catarrhal discharges, hoarseness, sore throat, lingering, or hang-on-coughs, and all those various affections which, if not promptly and properly treated are liable to terminate in consumption. Take Dr. Pierce's Discovery in time and persevere in its use until you give it a fair trial and it is not likely to disappoint. Too much must not be expected of it. It will not perform miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. It will cure the affections that lead up to consumption, if taken in time.

Tipped for Good Places.

Information to the effect that Judge
A. M. J. Cochran, Judge of the Eastern district of Kentucky, and Robert H. Winn, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, are to receive appointments from President-elect Taft within a very short time after his inauguration at Washington was received Wednesday from the best of sources.
Judge Cochran, it is said, will be elevated to the place made vacant by the recent death of Judge Richards in Cincinnati, who was a member of the Circuit Court of Appeals of the United States, while Mr. Winn will step into the office at present occupied by Judge Cochran.

Rumor, which is persistent in the extreme, has it that Cochran is right in line for the place once held by Judge Richards and that everything is in his favor for the appointment. This being the case, it is said that a host of prominent Kentucky Republicans, friends of Mr. Winn, will present a solid phalanx in his favor and endorse him for the Judgeship now held by Judge Cochran.
The two men named are in the good graces of the President. Mr. Winn is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Turney, of this county.

Needs Killing.

Some people are found in every little town who because of ill breeding or more frequently a cross, ugly, perverse unamiable disposition, are unwilling to extend the merest formal courtesy.
The greatest old bear that ever came from the polar regions is that sour, surly, self contained, ill conditioned man, says an exchange. When you pass him on the street you get no friendly recognition. He may possibly emit a strange guttural sound which in the nomenclature of the well bred and refined is likened to the grunt of a hog
as it disports itself from its wallow.
Such a man has hit the world on the wrong side or he was born in the dark of the moon, and often himself thinks with his neighbors that it was an everlasting mistake that he was ever born at all. Whenever you see him approaching, cold chills chase each other along your spinal column at a Nancy Hanks pace. When he has departed a sense of relief takes possession of you and you thank the Lord that he has wisely distributed these surly, sour, old bears and they do not remi-nate in one community. The old bear is the bitter weed at all social functions church circles, political gatherings and in business life. Avoid him when you can for you do not feel like an angel
for a time after the interview with him.

Night on Bald Mountain.

On a lonely night Alex Benton, of Fort Edward, N.Y., climbed Bald Mountain to the home of a neighbor, tor-

Gets Good Appointment.

Stanley Webster, former Harrison county, Kentucky, prosecutor, who sent Curt Jett and Tom White to the penitentiary for the murder of James B. Marcum, at Jackson, was Saturday appointed Superior Judge of Spokane county, Washington, by acting Governor Day. The appointment is for four years and pay $4,000 a year. Webster's brilliant record as a deputy prosecuting attorney won the appointment.

Not Worth Repeating.

story you told me the last time you were here." The Hobo—"Course is

Must Marry to Get Money.

In construing the will of Byron Mc-Clelland, who died at Lexington, leaving an estate of about $200,000, the Court of Appeals Friday held that his niece, Frances McClelland, cannot inherit a legacy of $10,000 until her marriage. Mr. McClelland provided in his will that his niece should have $10,000 on the day of her marriage, and the court holds that she has no vested interest in that inheritance, and she does not get it until her marriage. The lower court was sustained in its construction of the will in every other respect.

The Rash Plumber.

"To save foolish workmen from incurring unnecessary risks," says the Builders' Journal, "is well-nigh impossible." Almost every year some rash, thoughtless young plumber rushes out
and does a job of work.—London Globe.

Dog Tax Falls Short.

The dog tax collected in Fayette county in 1908 only paid 44.91 per cent of the value of sheep killed by dogs in the county and which claims were filed in the County Court. County Clerk
Lewis has just received from the State Treasurer a draft for $795.84, while the claims filed for sheep killed by dogs in that county aggregate $1,713. All of the claims will therefore be prorated and paid on the basis of 44.91 of its base value.

Does the Baby Thrive

If not, something must be wrong with its food. If the —Fort Worth Texas, Telegram: "Dr. Mattison Wilbur Chase delivered a lecture at the Christian tabernacle Saturday night under the auspices of the Fort Worth Lyceum. His subject was: 'Why, or the Problem of Life.' In the beginning of the lecture it was philosophic, but after it had progressed for about fifteen minutes the speaker branched off in a humorous vein in which he is particularly entertaining. He is eloquent and an interesting orator and possesses the peculiar faculty of combining serious topics with the lighter, presenting deep ideas and also amusing his audience."

—The Chillicothe News-Advertiser has the following to say about Mr. Vimont Welch, who is a great nephew of Miss Lizzie Vimont, and has a large relationship here. He is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Welch. His mother was formerly Miss Lizzie Searce, who is well known here.

"One of the young men in the High School is developing considerable business. Vimont Welch has been making mosaic picture puzzles for which he has quite a demand. These puzzles were introduced a couple of decades since, proved attractive, and then as is so often the case their sale declined; but lately their favor has been again assured."

"They are certainly educational, teaching close observation, which facility can be acquired by practice. For instance, take the map of Ohio, and let it be dissected, and then ask a boy or girl to replace all the portions and form the map anew. That boy or girl cannot help but know something about the counties of the State, and the respective locations. The dissected picture puzzle is a fascinating game. Vimont Welch is somewhat of a genius with tools. Specimens of his work are exhibited in one of the show windows of Bienn & Haynes."

—Mrs. E. T. Beeding is ill with inflammation of the stomach and bowels.

—Mr. R. S. Letton, of Atlanta, Ga., arrived Saturday as the guest of his mother, Mrs. Jennie Letton and family.

—Mrs. Zene Flaughter left Monday for Dayton, O., to make her future home. Mrs. Flaughter has a large circle of friends who regret her departure and all hope in the near future she may return and abide with us again.

—The remains of Mr. A. T. Forsyth, who died at his home in Paris early Friday morning was buried here Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock under the auspices of I. O. O. F. lodge and Confederate veterans.

It was a beautiful afternoon and the impressive services at the grave were witnessed by the largest crowd in the history of the cemetery, unless it was that of Sir Knight Hiram Bassett, in the autumn of 1890. A special train of three coaches brought a large crowd from Paris including ninety Odd Fellows, a number of Confederate veterans and a large number of citizens, arriving three quarters of an hour in advance of the funeral procession, which was large.

Mr. Forsyth was one of the best known men in Central Kentucky, his long life as an auctioneer has brought him in contact with nearly everybody in this and surrounding counties. His parents are buried here, hence he was brought here that he might become a part of the same soil.

He was a universal favorite here and was always welcome, his genial disposition, coupled with his wit and humor, a big hearted friend, the true brother and loyal citizen has made him a place in the memory of his friends that will last as long as there is one of them alive to tell the story of his life.

There was not a sale in this community that he did not cry. If it was not convenient for him at an appointed time arranged for, the time was changed to suit his convenience. He was to have cried the sale of Vimont Bros. here Saturday, also the sale of J. V. Ingels on Wednesday, the 10th. The taking off of such a man is a heavy loss to the great common people and his place will be hard to fill. The bereaved widow has the sympathy of the entire county in this our great common loss.

Horrible Accident.

Mrs. Lyddia Doley, aged 50 years, an employee in a cotton mill at Maysville, met with a frightful accident while at work Saturday morning. She was cleaning a piece of machinery when her hair became undone and was caught in the belt. In an instant the hair was torn from its roots, bringing with it large pieces of the scalp. It was only by chance that her life was saved, as the engine had been slowed down to make some minor repairs. Mrs. Doley is in a critical condition and it is not thought she can survive the shock.

This is the second farm Mr. Butler has purchased in the past few weeks. The Gratz farm lays beautifully and is not far from the city limits and in a short time. Mr. Butler, will no doubt, have one of the prettiest farms in the county.

Imported Irish Potatoes.

Imported Irish potatoes brought direct from the Old Country are being sold in the Blue Grass in wholesale lots 100 car loads of them having been sent to Kentucky Friday on a special train in sections made up in New York for the purpose of distributing them throughout this country.

Surprising as it may seem the whole sale dealers in this line of goods are enabled by the present high prices of the home grown product to import this staple from across the Atlantic Ocean and sell it to the retailers at the same price that the farmers in this country are asking for the same product.

Potatoes are now selling at a retail price of $1.20 per bushel. This is the highest price on record for several years.

Bourbon Circuit Court.

The March term of the Bourbon Circuit Court was convened yesterday morning, Judge Butler Southgate, of Lexington, presiding.

Judge Stout the regular Judge being absent in the South on account of his health, the Bourbon bar held a meeting Friday and unanimously voted to recommend Mr. Butler Southgate to the Governor for appointment to hold this term of court. The Governor acquiesced in the request and Mr. Southgate received the appointment.

Judge Southgate took the reins like an old timer, and rapped for order at 9:30 a. m.

After the reading of the orders of the last day of the November term, Judge Southgate ordered the Sheriff to call around the grand jury men. The following gentlemen were called to the box and sworn in and composed the grand jury: J. D. McClintock, foreman; J. Will Bedford, Wm. Meteer, John Marston, W. H. Renick, Newt Smith, Chas. Ball, Clay Gultskill, E. H. Blake, S. C. Ashcraft, Lee R. Penn, Sam Harding.

Judge Southgate's instructions, to the jury were void of sensation, being impressive and forcible. He told them in substance that the oath they had just taken confined their duties. That he felt it unnecessary therefore to enlarge upon their duty to investigate thoroughly into all violations of the law. He said a grand jury could be of immense service to the people of the county by fearlessly doing its duty. When a matter is brought before you that can be explained the law gives you the right to have that explanation by summoning anyone before you that can give such information.

He called their attention to gambling in every form, the liquor laws, pure food law and sale of poison. He spoke of the growing cocaine habit and if the laws in regard to the sale of this drug is being violated it should be found out and the guilty parties indicted.

Judge Southgate was listened to with close attention from the grand jury and all present and he made a very favorable impression with all.

The docket is much congested and it is hoped by litigants especially that Judge Southgate will hustle things along and relieve the docket of many cases that have been hanging fire for these many moons.

Court adjourned about 11 o'clock until 9 o'clock this morning.

Land Deeded Back to Col. John Cunningham.

Several weeks ago a man by the name of Judge Walter L. Church, claiming to represent some wealthy mining company, of New York City, came to Bourbon county and stopped with Col. John Cunningham, at Rose dale, his country home. In a few days after his arrival it was reported that Col. Cunningham had sold his old home place of 131 acres to the said Walter L. Church for $22,750 cash and other considerations.

Making inquiries at the County Clerk's office it was found that such a deed had been recorded. Upon investigation it was found that while the deed read cash, it was said not one cent had been paid to Col. Cunningham but that he had been given a batch of worthless bonds. Upon this information County Attorney T. E. Moore, Jr., had Col. Cunningham summoned before County Judge Dundon for inquiry into his mental condition and capacity for transacting business. This inquiry was entered into Saturday morning at ten o'clock. The result was that Col. Cunningham was restored to the possession of his farm, and that Judge Walter L. Church had left the State.

Col. Cunningham was represented by Judge John Chenault, of Richmond, while County Attorney Moore, at whose instance the proceedings were brought, looked after the interests of the Commonwealth.

Judge Chenault, who is a nephew of Mrs. Cunningham, made a statement to the Court that on Friday said Church had come to Richmond and made a deed of transfer of the property to Mrs. Laura Frances, sister of Mrs. Cunningham, who in turn had conveyed the property to Col. Cunningham, leaving the ownership of the property as before the alleged sale.

The question of the appointment of a committee to take charge of Col. Cunningham and his estate and inquiry into his mental condition was continued indefinitely by Judge Dundon. Thus neither millionaire fire-castle topples to the ground.

The following communication was received by us yesterday afternoon after the above was in type:

(All papers please copy.)

Col. John Cunningham's mind is all right. He has been outrageously treated.

The United States Trust Company, of Washington, D. C., highly endorses the Co-Operative Bonds and whenever a dollar's worth of bonds is issued there must be a dollar in cash or property back of it. Also Douglas, Leckie & Thompson, one of the oldest and most reliable patent and law firms in Washington is engaged to attend to all the Koreshan Unity Co-Operative business, so Judge Walter L. Church comes in highly recommended as an honorable Christian gentleman and his 7 per cent. Co-Operative sold Bonds are highly endorsed and advertised by these firms.

HOME CURE FOR ECZEMA

Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, Glycerine, etc., Used as a Simple Wash.

It really seems strange that so many people suffer year in and year out with eczema, when it is no longer a secret that oil of wintergreen mixed with thymol glycerine, etc., makes a wash that is bound to cure.

Old, obstinate cases, it is true, can not be cured in a few days, but there is absolutely no sufferer from eczema who ever used this simple wash and did not find immediately that wonderfully soothing, calm, cool sensation that comes when the itch is taken away. Instantly upon applying a few drops of the wash the remedy takes effect, the itch is allayed. There is no need of experiment—the patient knows at once.

Instead of trying to compound the oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., in the right proportions, as ourselves we are using a preparation which is universally found the most effective. It is known as the D. D. D. Compound, or Oil of Wintergreen Compound. It is made by the D. D. D. Co., of Chicago, and our long experience with this remedy has given us great confidence in its merits.

State-Wide Prohibition Amendment.

The proposed amendment to the State Constitution providing for State-wide prohibition, which will be submitted for passage to the next Legislature was made public for the first time Tuesday night by Mr. Francis E. Beauchamp, president of the W. C. T. U. of Kentucky, under whose direction the bill was prepared. The drafting of this bill was almost the last legal work done by the late Judge J. R. Morton, of Lexington.

The measure as prepared is sweeping in its character and prohibits the manufacture, sale, barter or giving away of intoxicants within the State and also to restrict the transportation by companies of such liquor within the State.

It provided for one agency to sell liquor in each county for medicinal purposes, denatured alcohol for industrial purposes, for scientific purposes in institutions, universities and colleges and apothecaries, in the compounding of prescriptions, provided they give a $1,000 bond.

All applicants for liquor are to apply, in writing, stating the purposes for which the liquor is wanted. Prescriptions for liquor must be given by practicing physicians. Any person making a false swearing and perjury. Physicians who falsely prescribe liquors are to be subject to $200 fine or imprisonment. The amendment is self-executing and if passed will go into effect and become operative, January 1, 1912. The temperance forces are now at work sending petitions into every precinct of the State asking that the amendment be submitted to a vote of the people of the State. It is the object of those in charge of this work to send the largest petition to Frankfort that has ever been seen at the capitol.

Daylight Saving Bill.

In order to "save daylight" and have the business of the day transacted in the light of the sun instead of by artificial light, a movement which took shape in England has spread to this country and Gov. Willson is seriously considering recommending such a measure for Kentucky. It is possible that a bill carrying into effect the idea of daylight saving may be introduced in the next Legislature. The idea is to set the clocks forward one hour, beginning April 1 and set them back again on September 1. Gov. Willson received a letter from London, England, explaining the plan and suggesting that it be adopted in Kentucky.

From Paris Backs—Relief Provided by Lapse of Time.

Backache is a heavy burden; Nervousness wears one out; Rheumatic pains; urinary ills; All are kidney burdens—Daily effects of kidney weakness. No use to cure the symptoms. Relief is but temporary if the cause remains.

Cure the kidneys and you cure the cause.

Relief comes quickly—comes to stay. Doan's Kidney Pills cure kidney ills—Cure sick kidneys permanently. Here's proof that you can verify.

C. A. Wallace, 541 N. St. Clair Street, Frankfort, Ky., says: "Kidney trouble in my case was brought on by a strain I received while doing some heavy lifting at my work. I suffered from a dull ache and lameness in my back and as time went on, I grew worse. I could scarcely get around and a difficulty with the kidney secretions also caused me additional annoyance. I used various remedies but received little relief until I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a supply. I was helped from the first and continued taking them until I was benefited in every way." (From statement given in 1903.)

A PERMANENT CURE.

On March 5, 1908, Mr. Wallace confirmed the above statement saying: "The results I received from Doan's Kidney Pills five years ago have lasted and although I am an old man, I am enjoying fine health. I attribute the great change entirely to the curative powers of Doan's Kidney Pills."

A New Scheme.

At Hatching, Kansas, they are working a new scheme. The regular joints are not doing business at the old stand since the Civic League started its campaign. Saloons are now installed in cabs. When a man wants a drink, he calls up a certain number and asks that the "water" wagon be sent around. This water wagon carries water to be used only as chasers. Under the seats are bottles of all kinds packed in ice. When the water wagon drives up, the thirsty man steps inside, and the driver lets his horses lope around the block until he gets a signal from the bartender, who rides inside with the patrons, that said patron has spent all his money. Then the driver unloads this patron and drives back to the barn to await another call.

The Helping Hand.

All the gold in the world does not fill up more space than a single drop of warm human blood in the gap that exists between those who are well off and those who are not.—Alexander Kielland.

Probably Change Date.

Speaker Cannon, of the House, Saturday declared himself in favor of changing the date of the presidential inauguration from March 4 to May 1, and added that as one of the Representatives in Congress he would lend his aid in any effort to bring this about. "I witnessed the dreadful weather condition that prevailed in 1872, when four or five hundred people caught their deaths," he said. "I recall the Harrison inauguration, with the soaking chilliness rainstorm and the snow and icy gale that made life miserable at Cleveland's second inauguration. If the change of date is made it might as well be fixed later than April, for even an April rain would cause great discomfort and much sickness, and I should think that May 1 would provide more certainly of fair weather."

A Serious Situation.

Unless the State pays a warrant for $20,613, due for running expenses during the last three months, the Kentucky School for the Deaf at Danville will have to close its doors and send back to their homes some hundreds of girls and boys. At present the school is flat broke, not having a cent on which to run and is unable to raise money, either by borrowing or on the warrants of the State. The condition of affairs is very serious as those interested in the school are much worried.

Payment of the warrant was refused at Frankfort Monday on the ground that the State did not have any money to meet the claim, although some general warrants are being paid. It was announced some time ago that general warrants would not be paid, but the schools for charitable institutions would be cared for. This was meant to include the insane asylums and the feeble-minded institute, but one institution, which is not a charitable one, although placed on that general footing seems to have been left out of the reckoning. The school at Danville is supported by the State and draws its allowance only once every three months. Judge C. R. McDowell, one of the trustees of the school, was at Frankfort Tuesday trying to get money and said the situation is a serious one.

Fairbanks Takes Inkstand.

When he left office yesterday Vice-President Fairbanks took with him the beautiful inkstand which has ornamented his desk for the last four years. The inkstand has been the subject of considerable interest because of the published story that it had cost $500.

According to custom the presiding officer of the Senate is privileged to design and have manufactured such ornamental ink receptacle as he fancies, and the one procured by Mr. Fairbanks was made by a manufacturing jeweler in New York. The criticism of the reputed cost of this stand has rankled Mr. Fairbanks' heart for four years and he sent to Secretary Bennett a check for $200 which was the actual cost of the ornament and announced that he would take it with him.

A Hurry Up Call.

Quick! Mr. Druggist—Quick!—A box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve—here's a quarter—for the love of Moses hurry! Its the greatest healer on earth. Sold by Oberdorfer, the druggist.

Powdered Milk.

The latest demonstration of the tendency toward the condensed mode of living—the approaching epoch of the vest-pocket dinner—is powdered milk. This preparation is actually on the market, and has already found favor because it solves the problem of "short notice," coffee. If there is no cream in the house, mix a little of the new stuff with water, and presto, cream for the emergency! It is recommended for daily use also. At night, pour boiling water over the powder, let it stand until morning, when cream can be skimmed from it, bringing the country comfort to the breakfast table by the use of the magic powder. Truly, the days of Aladdin's lamp are upon us.

Beautiful Sentiment.

The following beautiful sentiment is from the pen of Senator Bob Taylor:

"I would rather fill my purse with money and keep its gates ajar to my happy girls while yet they linger under my roof than to clutch it with a miser's hand until the harp-strings of youth are broken and all its music forever fled."

"I would rather spend my last nickel for a bag of striped marbles to gladden the hearts of my bare foot boys than to deny them their childish pleasures and leave them a bag of gold to quarrel over when I am dead."

"I abhor the pitiless hawk that circles in the air only to swoop down and destroy the song of the linnet or bury its talons in the heart of the dove."

"I despise the soulless man whose greed for gold impels him to strangle the laughter and song of his own family."

Editor Roberts Sued.

Sam J. Roberts, editor and publisher of the Lexington Leader, is made the defendant in a $25,000 damage suit filed by County Judge S. S. Paulbee, of Jackson, because of an article published in the Lexington Leader nearly a year ago in which Judge Paulbee and his manner of holding court was held up to the public ridicule. The article was written by a lady correspondent of the New York Herald just after the murder of Judge James Hargis and was published in a large number of papers.

The Masculine Christianity Convention convenes in this city March 12-14, this will be the largest convention of the kind ever held in Kentucky. We urge our citizens to report to Mr. W. O. Hinton today how many delegates they will entertain. There will be three hundred delegates here, consisting of the most prominent men in the State that are interested in this work, and homes for only one hundred of them have been obtained. If you are Kentuckians show your hospitality by caring for a few of these delegates and send your name and the number you can care for to W. O. Hinton at once. The Rev. Dr. R. A. Torrey, the greatest living evangelist will be here to deliver three lectures, an opportunity to hear even this one man will repay anyone for the trouble taken with a few delegates.

$50,000,000 Drop in Exports.

In January last there was a falling off of about $50,000,000 in the total value of the country's exports as compared with those of January 1908; while for several months ending January last, the total exports amounted to $12,031,791,944, against $1,129,090,551 in corresponding seven months of previous fiscal year. There was a fall of $157,000,000 in the seven months in question.

DEATHS.

—J. W. Calvert, of Pewee Valley, Oldham county, died of pneumonia on board the "Bradley special" returning from Washington Saturday morning, a victim of inauguration weather. He was a former candidate for Congress in the Seventh district and a veteran Republican.

Thomas Current Hall, aged three years, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hall, died of paralysis, early yesterday morning, near Kisereton. The remains were brought to the residence of Mrs. Robt. Green, on High Street, yesterday afternoon, where the funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, conducted by Elder Carey E. Morgan. Burial at Paris cemetery. Pall-bearers will be Dr. G. L. Rankin, Fithian Hall, Dr. Frank Fithian and Charles Hall.

Coming to a Close.

The hearing of the evidence in the long drawn out trial of Col. D. B. Cooper, Robin Cooper, his son, and former Sheriff, John Sharp, came to an end at Nashville Saturday when the defense announced that it rested and the State had nothing more to offer in rebuttal. After a short discussion between counsel for both sides and Judge Hart as to whether the arguments should be limited as to time, court was adjourned until Monday at 9 o'clock when the arguments began. Three speeches will be made by each side and by agreement the court placed no limit on the length of time the attorneys may take in summing up the case.

Attention Merchants.

The Paris Baseball Club will have about 15,000 copies of a Program Score Card printed for free distribution during the coming baseball season. It will be the aim of the Club to pay for the printing of these score cards from the proceeds of the advertising. Already a number of merchants have ordered space in the book and it is expected that every merchant in Paris who has the interest of the Paris Club at heart will take a liberal amount of advertising. Help the boys out by taking an ad as the fans will certainly appreciate every dollar spent in advertising in this book and will patronize the merchant who does so.
